1st April 2026

Dear Illustrious brethren and Princes,

As we enter this sacred season of Easter, I extend to each of you my heartfelt fraternal greetings. This is a time when the world around us awakens – light grows stronger, hope rises anew, and the eternal rhythms of renewal remind us of the deeper truths we seek on our path.

Easter invites us to reflect on transformation. Not merely as a historical or spiritual symbol, but as a living call to elevate our thoughts and embody the principles of compassion, wisdom and harmony. In our Order, we understand that true resurrection begins within – the quiet triumph of the higher self over limitation, fear, and illusion.

May this season inspire you to rekindle the inner flame of service, charity and understanding, and to embrace peace, both within your heart and in your dealings with others.

Let us continue to support one another, united in purpose and strengthened by the timeless teachings entrusted to us. Remember in our prayers those who are suffering adversity whether close or afar.

I send you my best wishes for peace and happiness at this special time and look forward to meeting up with you all at various meetings very soon.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,
